Hi Joanne

Just to let you know my corsage arrived this morning and it is perfect! I am absolutely delighted with it, if anything it is better than I expected. It adds the finishing touch to my outfit and has the advantage of not upsetting anyone who suffers from allergies also I have a permanent keepsake of my daughter's wedding day!

Your service is excellent - it is greatly appreciated that you managed to supply it in good time for the wedding even though it was ordered at such short notice.

Very many thanks for such a good product and service also for your good wishes.

Box containing precious floral arrangement & buttonhole arrived just after mid-day today by a very harrassed delivery bloke - apologised for delay but they've been snowed under playing catch up after the 'ash' debacle holding back parcels coming into France by plane....Joanne, they're absolutely beautiful and I'm the lucky girl who'll be walking them down the aisle. Once again, thanks again you little star!

All the best for the bank holiday weekend

Hi Joanne,
Thank you for the lovely flowers they are all beautiful. When I first saw the bridesmaids I was a little unsure if it was to much pink and maybe needed something cream with them.
But the more I look at them the more I am liking them.

Thank you once again and I will send you pictures when we back.

Good morning Joanne
The flowers have just arrived, I am delighted, utterly overwhelmed and I have actually got tears in my eyes and that's not me at all.

Your photographs on the website are very good, but they still do not capture their actual beauty, so life like and something to treasure for ever.
You have done a fantastic job, so beautifully presented and packed.

I cannot wait for the day now, I will send you photographs when I have them.

Once again a very big thank you for such a professional yet friendly service.

Kind regards
Gillie 😊 14/03/2011

I have received my flowers already. When I got up this morning I checked the tracking number and the parcel was delivered less than an hour after the courier left the depot.

Wow, I am so thrilled with my flowers! The headdress is wonderful, and my bouquet is perfect. I am almost speechless. You have made a wonderful bouquet, far better than the photo, and my headdress fits very well, even on my hair at the moment. I will certainly be very happy to recommend you to anyone wanting flowers.

Thank you so much.
